From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Rouffelaer, June 21. N. S.

HIS Grace the Duke of Marlborough, with the Army under his Command, march'd from Arseele the 18th Instant, and encamp'd in this Place, our Right being extended beyond Hoogleeede, and our Left beyond Rouffelaer. The Inhabitants of Brabant, upon our Army's being at this distance from them, began to fear, lest the Enemy, who have lately receiv'd a Reinforcement from Germany, should attempt to insult them: But his Grace, to free them from any Apprehensions of this kind, sent Brigadier General Cadogan with a Body of Horse towards Oudenarde, and caus'd the necessary Dispositions to be made for the immediate March of the Army that way, upon the first Intelligence of the Enemy's being in motion. Brigadier Meredyth, who with a Detachment of our Troops has block'd up Dendermonde, was inform'd by Deferters from the Town, that the Burghers had press'd the Governour to surrender; which he refusing to do, and insinuating that they would wait at least till such time as our Cannon had began to fire upon them, they oblig'd him to give them a Promise under his Hand, that he would then capitulate. Our Artillery to be employ'd against that Place will be ready this Day; so that we hope by our next Accounts to receive Advice of its being surrendered. We hear a Detachment of 1500 of the Enemy's Horse, with each a Foot Soldier behind him, is march'd from Mons to the Relief of Dendermonde; but Brigadier Cadogan having Notice of it, immediately march'd towards Alost, in order to joyn Brigadier Meredyth if there should be Occasion. The Army commanded by Monsieur d'Auverquerque invest'd Ostend Yesterday Morning, and will besiege that Place in Form as soon as the Artillery design'd for that Service is come up. The Enemy are doing all they are able to repair their extraordinary Losses; and give out, that they shall take the Field again about the middle of next Month.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

From M. d'Auverquerque's Camp at Mariekerque before Ostend, June 20. The 18th M. d'Auverquerque took a View of the Harbour of Newport; and seeing 'twas impossible for Troops to pass over it, to invest the Town on the Side towards Dunkirk, without which it could not be besieg'd with Success, his Excellency held a Council of War, in which it was resolv'd first to lay Siege to Ostend. So the 19th we decamp'd from Lombaerdzide before Newport; and in the Evening came and posted our selves here at Mariekerque which is within half a League of Ostend; and a great Detachment pass'd the Canal at Plaisendael, to invest the Place on that Side. We shall begin with the Attack of Fort St. Philip, in Order to make our selves Masters of the Sas de Fliques. We shall open Trenches in few Days. We have left 3 Battallions and 900 Horse, to guard some Posts that we had possess'd our selves of on the Canal of Newport. This Alteration of our Design upon Newport has been no Loss of Time to us, for our Artillery is come but to Plaisendael.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 26.

From the Camp before Ostend, June 21. Yesterday we came hither, and took Post with 500 Men within 400 Paces of the Town. The Garrison consists of 4000 Men. We can attack the Place, which is small, but on one Side, and the Besieged have plac'd 200 Pieces of Cannon against our Attack. Our Ingeniers advise that nothing should be done till all our Preparations are ready; 160 Cannon and 20 Mortars will be employ'd against the Place. The Water is some Inconvenience to us. We shall make so great a Fire, that the Inhabitants not knowing where to shelter themselves, will compell the Governour to surrender. The Elector of Bavaria threatens to make a Diversion towards Louvain, Brussels, or on the Maese.

Bruges, June 22. The Siege of Ostend cannot be carried on very fast, because there is no digging 2 Foot deep without finding Water; for that reason 'tis necessary to make Use of Fascines. All will be ready to Morrow.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 26.

Courtray, June 22. The French having quitted this Town and its Dependancies, and demanded 130000 Guilders Contribution, the Duke of Marlborough's Quarter-Master General came the 20th Instant with 300 Horse to Harlebecke, where he was met by the Magistrates of this Place, to whom he said, that he took Possession of their Town in the Name of King Charles III.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 25.

Ghent, June 23. The Army of the Allies is encamp'd about Rouffelaer, and is extended to the Mills of Bakelaer. Yesterday a great Number of heavy Cannon and Ammunition arriv'd in their Camp, and some think the Duke of Marlborough designs to form some great Siege in a short Time. Notwithstanding the French put Succours of Men and Money into Dendermonde the 21st Instant, Batteries of 30 Cannon and 14 Mortars will play upon that Place to Day or to Morrow. Yesterday Morning all the Sick French Soldiers, their Wives and Children, that were left in our Castle, were on a sudden remov'd, to make Room for 1200 Men of the Allies that are to come into Garrison here.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Brussels, June 23. The Troops of Hanover and Prussia in Number about 18000 Men, which are at present encamp'd between this Place and Louvain; are this Day to continue their March to the grand Army of the Allies in Flanders, having receiv'd an Order to that purpose from the Duke of Marlborough.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Rouffelaer, June 24. 'Tis expected Trenches will be open'd before Ostend to Morrow Night: That Place being situated in a sandy Ground, a great Number of Fascines are necessary for making Approaches to it; and the Besiegers being oblig'd to go 3 Leagues to to fetch those Falcines, the Attack of it is somewhat retarded. We have receiv'd an Account from Brigadier Meredith, who commands the Troops that block'd up Dendermonde, that he being advis'd of the Approach of a Detachment of the Enemy of about 3000 Horse and 2000 Foot, sent from Mons to succour Dendermonde, and judging it best not to expose his Troops to so great a superiority, retir'd from Lebbeke to Baestrow. He left 50 Men in a Redoubt, to cover his Retreat; of which only 5 were kill'd, and 7 with the Captain that commanded them taken Prisoners, the rest retiring to him. The Enemy put 400 Foot and 100 Dragoons into the Place, and upon the Approach of Brigadier Cadogan with 6 Squadrons, retir'd with Precipitation towards Mons, having lost about 700 Men by Desertion in this Expedition. The Bombarding of Dendermonde will be begun however in a Day or two, the Preparations for it being continued: And Orders are sent to Brigadier Cadogan to reinforce Brigadier Meredith with a Detachment of Horse and Foot; and 2500 Grenadiers were detach'd Yesterday from our Army to Audenarde, to oppose any Attempt the Enemy may make to hinder our Operations in this part of the Country.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 26.

Amsterdam, June 24. 'Tis advis'd from Paris, that the City and University of Salamanca have declar'd for King Charles III; that King Philip is arriv'd at Madrid; and that the Portuguese, after having taken Ciudad Rodrigo, are march'd towards Old Castile.

Hague, June 23. This Day, being the Day of Thanksgiving appointed by their High Mightinesses, for the great Successes which God has given the Allies in Catalonia and the Low Countries, was solemnly observ'd here. M. Verhoeve Aide de Camp to Lieutenant General Dedem, having brought hither 9 Standards and 24 Colours of those that were taken in the Battle of Ramellies, they were carried this Afternoon in Triumph through the Town, by part of our Garrison, and hung up in the great Hall. The rest of the Standards and Colours taken in that Battle, are to be sent to England.

London, June 18.

Yesterday Morning arriv'd an Express from Sir Stafford Fairborne, bringing an Account (as we are inform'd) that the Trenches were to be open'd on Sunday the 16th Instant O. S.; that the Seamen of Sir Stafford's Squadron had rais'd a Battery on the Shore; that Sir Stafford had furnish'd M. d' Auverquerque with a good Number of Cannon; and that the Besiegers had Intimation the Inhabitants would oblige the Garrison to surrender as soon as the Town should be hand press'd.

We hear that John Ward and Francis Eyles Esqs; are to be put in Nomination on Midsummer Day next in the Common Hall for Sheriffs of London and Middlesex, for the Year ensuing; being both Gentlemen of known Loyalty to Her Majesty and well affected to the Government both in Church and State.

Since the True Golden Snuff hath been so universally approved of, both in City and Country, to be that most excellent Remedy for most Diseases affecting the Head, the extraordinary Vertues and Use whereof are fully describ'd in the printed Directions, hath been basely counterfeited, and is no where else to be had then at Mason's Coffee-House in Bartholomew-Lane behind the Royal Exchange, at Mr. Girard's, Toy-shop, at the Three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland-house, and at Mr. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, at 1 s. per paper with Directions. Therefore beware of upstart Counterfeits. At the two first-mentioned Places is likewise to be had the Balsam of Cathay, for easing all Gouty and Rheumatick Pains, at 2 s. 6 d. per Box.

The famous Collick Water, so often mention'd in the Gazette, and Publish'd these seven Years, being so well known throughout England, for giving speedy Relief in Cases of Wind, Wind-Collick, Vapours of both kinds, sinking of the Spirits, Stitches and Pains of the Sides, Grines, Fluxes, Vomiting or Loosness, and all Indispositions and Weakness of Stomach and Bowels (immediately digesting any thing that offends) is continued to be sold at these Four Places only, (viz. Old Man's Coffee-House at Charing-Cross, Alice's at the Parliament-House, Richard's at Temple-Bar, and at Clark's Stationer in Burchin-Lane, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. 'Tis not purging, but a rich Cordial, pleasant to take at any time; and of excellent use to carry to Sea, being an immediate help in Fluxes, Gripes, &c. When once try'd none would be without it. To prevent Counterfeits, every Bottle is seal'd with my Seal, the Sun Flower Mantle and Crest. For of late I find there are several that under other Names imitate it, who live only by thus Pyrating upon one and another.

The Incomparable India Dentifick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcrafts a Toy-shop at the Sign of the Bluecoat Boy over against the Royal Exchange, and at Young-Man's Coffee-House near Charing-Cross, price 6 d. each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruise'd with a Hammer, becomes a soft and pleasant Brush to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by degrees the outward Rind, wears so to the left. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteness of Ivory in a few times using; it preserves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uses it two or three times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a strong Breath, nor is this Root in its use any wise offensive to smell or taste.
